"touristes" au viaduc de Millau

An aerial photograph showing a small village nestled in a valley. The village consists of several buildings, including a prominent stone house with a dark roof and a smaller white building. The surrounding landscape is a mix of green grassy fields and steep, forested hillsides with bare trees. The foreground is dominated by the branches of bare trees, suggesting a late autumn or winter setting.

wagon de Rethondes - 11 novembre 1918 - signature de l'armistice

5.11.07: cela avance... et l'essentiel des travaux se déroule désormais à l'intérieur de la salle des fêtes

An aerial photograph of a rural landscape. A winding asphalt road curves through the lower half of the image. Several buildings are visible: a large, light-colored building with a dark roof in the upper right; a smaller, two-story building with a dark roof in the center; and a cluster of buildings, including a church with a steeple, in the lower center. The surrounding area is covered in dense, leafless trees and patches of green grass. The overall scene is a typical rural setting in a hilly region.
